The Honorable Philip Young
U. S. Civil Service Commission
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Young:

Reference is made to Departmental Circular Number 722, dated 29 August 1953, which requests a report on all positions currently included in Schedules A and B.

The inclusion of the positions of this Agency in Schedule A, Section 6.116(b), was requested prior to the enactment of the CIA Act of 1949, Public Law 110, 81st Congress. Although we have continued to cite Schedule A-6.116(b) as appointment authority in our personnel actions since the enactment of Public Law 110, we feel that this is an appropriate time to fully implement our appointment authority by citing Public Law 110 in appointment actions. In consequence the information requested by Departmental Circular 722 is not submitted.

Since Schedule A will no longer be utilized as an appointment authority by this Agency, it is requested that CIA be deleted from Section 6.116(b) of Schedule A.

Sincerely,

15/

L. K. White
Acting Deputy Director
